Very Rev. John G. Basarab - Pastor

ΕΠΙΦΑΝΥ OF OUR LORD Byzantine Catholic Church

The Sacraments – Our Life in Christ

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation - (Baptism, Chrismation, Holy Eucharist). We follow the command of the Lord to baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19). Chrismation (Confirmation) and Holy Eucharist (First Holy Communion) is imparted at the same time immediately following baptism Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Infants – is scheduled at the Divine Liturgy on Saturdays or Sundays during the year except certain fast periods. Sponsors must be Catholics in good standing and supply a sponsor card attesting to that from their parish. While two Catholics in good standing is usual, one baptized non-Catholic can function as a Christian Witness with the Catholic sponsor. Both must be at least sixteen years of age. Details are available at the parish office.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Adults – follows a period of catechuminate. This is a period of spiritual formation. Please see the priest or deacon.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Crowning in Marriage – According to the Pastoral Policy and Guidelines for Marriage Preparation for the Catholic Church in New Jersey, couples wishing to marry must inform the pastor one year before the date of the wedding and be free to marry in the Catholic Church. Couples will meet with the priest and deacon in four sessions – to begin the pre-nuptial investigation, to take FOCUS, a communications, values and religious inventory approved for use in the Catholic dioceses/eparchies, to complete the pre-nuptial investigation and for a session on the theology of the mystery (sacrament). They are also required to attend Pre-Cana or Engaged Encounter.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance – The Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance is regularly available each Saturday 11:30 AM – 12:00 Noon. In addition, confessions are heard during the Christmas Fast (Advent) and the Great Fast (Lent) on Sundays between the Divine Liturgies. Visiting confessors are also scheduled at special times during the Great Fast. Confessions are also heard on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Great and Holy Week to prepare for the observance of the Lord’s Resurrection.

Anointing of the Sick – Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life endangering medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves of the sacrament of penance and anointing of the sick. If surgery is scheduled, please consider confession and anointing at the church before entering the hospital since there is more privacy for confession and less chance of interruption for confession and anointing. If you are unable to come to church, please call the rectory. Families of parishioners who have a medical emergency should contact the rectory office so one of the priests can go the hospital.

Holy Communion and Visitation of the Sick – Holy Communion is brought to our parishioners who are ill at the hospital or at home by the deacon on Sundays and at other times by arrangement. Please contact the deacon or the rectory office by Friday prior to the Sunday communion visitation.

Funeral Services – The Office of Christian Burial is offered in ways to accommodate the needs of the family. The Epiphany Ladies Guild as part of their charity offers a Mercy Meal for families at the Parish Center following the interment. Epiphany of our Lord cemetery is a portion of Fairfax Memorial Park. Parishioners who are interested in purchasing cemetery plots should see the deacon.

Byzantine Catholic Mission of Montgomery County - Divine Liturgy: Sunday 10:00 AM; Religious Education & Social Hour 11:15-12:15: 20501 Goshen Road, Gaithersburg, MD; (301) 482-0282.

"Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house, and try Me in this way, says the Lord of hosts; Shall I not open for you the floodgates of heaven, to pour down blessing upon you without measure?" (Malachi 3:10)

Prayers for our Parishioners. The particular law of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church directs: "The pastor is to celebrate the Divine Liturgy for the people of the parish entrusted to him on Sundays and days of precept [holy days of obligation]" (canon 294). This liturgy intention for all parishioners is "For the intention of our Parishioners." The faithful who attend the Divine Liturgy for the parishioners participate, according to their state, in praying for that intention. We can continue this prayer for one another during the week by remembering several parishioners and families each week. Please remember this week: James Sayen, Sr. & family, Joseph and Ashley Sayen & family, Marshall and Catherine Sayen & family, Gerald Schalestock, Mark and Cathy Schott, Donald and Deborah Scipioni & family, and from the Mission, Anne Fejka.

Blessed Palms and Willows should be kept in your home, usually at the icon corner or crucifix, as a witness to the Lord's presence in your life. Last year's palms and willows are blessed sacramentals and should be destroyed by burning or burying them or bring them to the hall in the chapel basement and place them in the receptacle provided. Do not throw them into the garbage.

Lamp and Light. Bible Study with Deacon Peter Turko will resume meeting this Wednesday night, April 26th, at 7:00 PM in the Chapel basement.

Pentecostarion for Pascha. The Pentecostarion, which means "Fifty Days" referring to the fifty days from Pascha to Pentecost, begins Great Saturday evening. Another name for this collection of hymns and services is "Flowering Triodion". The day of the Resurrection of our Lord, called the Great Day (Velik Den'), is observed as a day seven days long called Bright Week. The Sunday after Pascha is called the Antipascha, Greek for in place of the Pascha, since now the Great Day of Pascha is over and the regular weekly Pascha or Sundays resume. The Sunday is known more as Thomas Sunday from the gospel read of the Risen Lord meeting Saint Thomas on the Sunday after Easter.

Paschal Rituals. We express our joy in the resurrection by several rituals during the forty days of Pascha: (1) As a sign of the joy that is ours in the resurrection, we do not kneel from Easter Sunday until Pentecost for any of the liturgical services, for the time of penance is completed, and joy now reigns. We stand instead of kneeling and we stand whenever Christ is risen is sung. We sit at the epistle and homily. You may sit at the litanies, the first and second antiphons and the Troparia. You may sit at other times, except when Christ is risen is sung. (2) After Bright Week, commemorations are made for intentions, but with the proper response of "Many years..." or "Eternal Memory." (3) The Artos (Greek: Bread), blessed and placed on the tetrapod on Pascha is broken and distributed today. The risen Lord ate with his disciples during the forty days from Pascha to Ascension. Jesus said, "I am the living Bread that came down from heaven" (John 6:51). The Artos is placed in the middle of the churches "in full view of the faithful to serve as their same reminder of the invisible presence of the Lord with us" (Bulgakov, Kiev, 1900).

Thank You. We extend our thanks to all who helped in the preparations and services for Great and Holy Week and the Great Day of Pascha: those who prepared the palms and willows for Palm Sunday, the ECF-SOR students, administrators and catechists in the Palm Sunday procession, those who cleaned after each Palm Sunday Liturgy, the cantors for their preparation and prayerful rendering of the hymns each day of Great Week and of Pascha, the head sacristan and sacristans for expertly fulfilling the multitude and variety of duties they are required to do so that all the services can take place, the dedicated office staff who labored continuously and proficiently, those who helped the sacristans prepare the church, the altar servers for their participation necessary to serve the Lord at the holy altar for lengthy services, those who set up the parish center for the blessing of Easter baskets, the BCY for their hosting the Easter Egg hunt for our young parishioners, the ushers who fulfilled their duties so precisely for the processions and reception of Holy Communion, and those committed parishioners who kept watch through the night and day at the Lord's tomb. May God bless all of you.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thomas Sunday Dinner. On the feast of the appearance of our Lord to the Apostle Thomas, Epiphany will celebrate with a parish meal that includes the foods from which we have abstained during the Great Fast. This will be held in the parish center after second liturgy on the Sunday today.

Epiphany Ladies Guild. Epiphany Ladies Guild will host their Spring Dance Saturday, May 6th from 7:30 PM - 10:30 PM. Included in the ticket price of $20 for adults, $10 for students are appetizers, beer, wine, soft drinks, coffee, tea, a 20' dessert bar, and live music provided by The Fairfax Swing Band.

Baseball Game. On Sunday, June 11th, Epiphany Men's Club will sponsor a baseball trip to Washington, DC to see the Nationals play against the Texas Rangers. The bus will leave Epiphany parking lot at 2:15 PM. The game begins at 4:05 PM. All tickets have been reserved but a waiting list is being developed. The cost is $36/ticket, which includes transportation, beverages, and snacks. To pay for your tickets or to be added to the waiting list, contact Ed Gubanich at 703-978-3824 or email ED1345@aol.com; Jack Kepick at 703-455-6510. Make checks payable to Epiphany Men's Club. If you have not confirmed your reservation, please do so immediately.

Men's Club and Nationals Tickets. Epiphany Men's Club meeting was held Thursday, April 6th. For the dinner before the meeting the men fortified themselves before the rigors of Great Week fasting by enjoying, following hors d'oeuvres, pork loin roast, mashed potatoes, asparagus, and a fruit salad to end the dinner and for dessert, Italian cookies. After this the men had an excellent meeting with good reports and insightful interventions. The first attendance drawing for a block of four Washington National tickets was won by Emil Koval. Men of the parish are invited to attend the next monthly Men's Club meeting Thursday, May 4th for another excellent dinner, good company, and the next chance to win Nationals tickets.
