EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD Byzantine Catholic Church

The Sacraments – Our Life in Christ

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation - (Baptism, Chrismation, Holy Eucharist). We follow the command of the Lord to baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19). Chrismation (Confirmation) and Holy Eucharist (First Holy Communion) is imparted at the same time immediately following baptism Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Infants – is scheduled at the Divine Liturgy on Saturdays or Sundays during the year except certain fast periods. Sponsors must be Catholics in good standing and supply a sponsor card attesting to that from their parish. While two Catholics in good standing is usual, one baptized non-Catholic can function as a Christian Witness with the Catholic sponsor. Both must be at least sixteen years of age. Details are available at the parish office.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Adults – follows a period of catechuminate. This is a period of spiritual formation. Please see the priest or deacon.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Crowning in Marriage – According to the Pastoral Policy and Guidelines for Marriage Preparation for the Catholic Church in New Jersey, couples wishing to marry must inform the pastor one year before the date of the wedding and be free to marry in the Catholic Church. Couples will meet with the priest and deacon in four sessions – to begin the pre-nuptial investigation, to take FOCCUS, a communications, values and religious inventory approved for use in the Catholic dioceses/eparchies, to complete the pre-nuptial investigation and for a session on the theology of the mystery (sacrament). They are also required to attend Pre-Cana or Engaged Encounter.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance – The Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance is regularly available each Saturday 11:30 AM – 12:00 Noon. In addition, confessions are heard during the Christmas Fast (Advent) and the Great Fast (Lent) on Sundays between the Divine Liturgies. Visiting confessors are also scheduled at special times during the Great Fast. Confessions are also heard on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Great and Holy Week to prepare for the observance of the Lord's Resurrection.

Anointing of the Sick – Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life endangering medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves of the sacrament of penance and anointing of the sick. If surgery is scheduled, please consider confession and anointing at the church before entering the hospital since there is more privacy for confession and less chance of interruption for confession and anointing. If you are unable to come to church, please call the rectory. Families of parishioners who have a medical emergency should contact the rectory office so one of the priests can go the hospital.

Holy Communion and Visitation of the Sick – Holy Communion is brought to our parishioners who are ill at the hospital or at home by the deacon on Sundays and at other times by arrangement. Please contact the deacon or the rectory office by Friday prior to the Sunday communion visitation.

Funeral Services – The Office of Christian Burial is offered in ways to accommodate the needs of the family. The Epiphany Ladies Guild as part of their charity offers a Mercy Meal for families at the Parish Center following the interment. Epiphany of our Lord cemetery is a portion of Fairfax Memorial Park. Parishioners who are interested in purchasing cemetery plots should see the deacon.

Byzantine Catholic Mission of Montgomery County – Divine Liturgy: Sunday 10:00 AM; Religious Education & Social Hour 11:15 – 12:15; 20501 Goshen Road, Gaithersburg, MD; (301) 482-0282.

Pussy Willows. Some parts of the northeast and the Midwest are claiming that because of some warmer than average winter temperatures the pussy willows are beginning to bud. Those parishioners who have pussy willows and supply them for our parish to use for Palm Sunday are asked to check your plants for any sign of budding. The news story stated that the correct way to cut them is to wait until almost all the branches have budded and before the buds go green to cut them. They should then be stored in a cool place until Palm Sunday. Thank you.

EPARCHIAL AND OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bishop's Appeal 2016. The parish goal for the church is $19,800 as last year. Also, as last year if the parish reaches the goal it will receive a reversion of 40% of donations sent to the chancery. To date, 70 families and one organization have contributed $18,360 toward our goal. We are only $1,420 short of our goal. Through your generosity the parish reversions from recent Appeals given back to Epiphany parish have provided for necessary repairs and maintenance. The reversion from the Bishop's Appeal 2015 is $7,932.40 which is dedicated funds for the replacement of the Parish Center boiler. Added to the reversion, $3,841.00 has been donated by parishioners toward the replacement of the boiler in the Parish Center. The proceeds from this year's festival raffle was $2,066. The Epiphany Ladies Guild has generously made a donation of $15,000.00 toward the replacement of the parish center boiler, which brings the boiler fund up to $28,839.40. If we make our Appeal 2016 goal we will receive another $7,932.40 to be added to the boiler fund, which will give us $36,771.80. The latest estimate for a new boiler is $45,257.00. Thank you for your generosity. It is not too late to make a donation.

Saint Gregory Adult Ed. Father Lewis Rabayda invites parishioners of Epiphany parish-Annandale and Epiphany mission-Gaithersburg to the February Adult Catechesis sessions. The remaining dates are February 15 and 22. The Adult Catechesis will be offered twice on each date to accommodate the differing schedules of adults, one at 10:00 AM and again at 7:30 PM. The topic presented for the month of February is "The Early Church: From the Resurrection of Christ to Catholicism". There are no registration or materials needed to be brought by participants. The location is Saint Gregory of Nyssa Byzantine Catholic Church, 12420 Old Gunpowder Road Spur, Beltsville, Maryland.

Cantor Training Classes to begin. The Metropolitan Cantor Institute began its Spring 2017 Cantor's Institute on-line classes from February 12 to April 7 with two course offerings using the newly acquired license agreement with Theta Music Trainer. The classes of the Institute are open to all cantors of the Archeparchy and the eparchies of Passaic, Parma, and Phoenix of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church of Pittsburgh. Cantors can follow the instruction and link at the website of the Metropolitan Cantor Institute. Go to www.archpitt.org, click on Ministries on the pull down menu, click on Metropolitan Cantor Institute, and then click on the link to their dedicated web site.

Attention HS Juniors. "Greetings from Christendom College" a Catholic, four-year, Liberal Arts College located in Front Royal, Virginia. For the past nineteen years we have provided one of the best-pre college summer programs available. Through these life-changing programs, hundreds of rising seniors have experienced the true joy of living and learning in a supportive Catholic community. While 80% of Catholics who leave the Faith do so during the years 18-22, we have a proven track record so far for helping our students and alumni remain committed, practicing Catholics. We will have three weeks in June and three in July. Register on-line at www.christendom.edu/experience and we offer financial assistance to anyone who requests it.

LITURGY AND LIFE

Prayer Intentions. Please remember in prayer: Michael Mikulak, Patricia Fedorko, David Sayen, Mary McDonnell, Mary Gaydos, Justine Ferrari, Julia Zdynak, Louis Shanks, Peter Wegman, Robert Hencken, Caroline Zurun, Mary Beth Vieira and Robert Esser. Please pray for these friends and relatives of parishioners: Shirley Anne Markham, Jeffrey Mikulak, Francine O'Leary, Russell Plasha, Tim O'Leary, Joanne Gaudino, Patricia Delfine, Rev. Joseph Jugan, Steven Goula, Fr. Phillip Scott, Mary Jewette, Luke Kolar, Fr. Conan Timoney, Eileen Gray, Bernadette Strate, Karen Baine and James Seman, brother of Stephen Seman.

Prayers for our Parishioners. The particular law of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church directs: "The pastor is to celebrate the Divine Liturgy for the people of the parish entrusted to him on Sundays and days of precept [holy days of obligation]" (canon 294). This liturgy intention for all parishioners is "For the intention of our Parishioners." The faithful who attend the Divine Liturgy for the parishioners participate, according to their state, in praying for that intention. We can continue this prayer for one another during the week by remembering several parishioners and families each week. Please remember this week Ronald and Susan Neff, Christina and Doug Nevitt & family, Carlton Noffsinger, David and Linda Norad & family, Katie and Andrew Nowakowski, Carol and Gary Noyes & family, Laura and Michael O'Leary & family, and from the Mission, Richard and Anita Rhinehart.

Lamp and Light Change. Bible study with Deacon Peter will be Wednesday, February 15 and Wednesday, February 22. During the Great Fast Presanctified Liturgy is Wednesdays at 7:30PM. So, the Bible Study adjusts to accommodate the Lenten pattern. Instead of class on Wednesdays, during the Great Fast the Bible Study group will follow the Old Testament readings privately: Vespers and Presanctified use Genesis and Proverbs while the Sixth Hour (Prayer at Noon) uses the prophet Isaiah. The liturgical wall calendar has the readings for each weekday while the Bible study series is www.agapebiblestudy.com This on-line Catholic resource is the material the Bible study group at Epiphany uses. Join virtually Deacon Peter, your fellow Bible study group parishioners, and the Latin Catholic brothers and sisters who attend our Bible study, during the Great Fast. The Old Testament readings were prescribed to instruct the catechumens who would be baptized on Great Saturday and to serve as a refresher course for Christ's Faithful. Genesis narrates 1. the Construction of the universe, the world, living beings, and the Man and Woman, 2. the deconstruction of the world by Original Sin and 3. The beginnings of the repair of the world through the saving work of God. The Book of Isaiah is read at noon because Isaiah prophesied the Savior would be the "Suffering Servant." Finally, Proverbs is read to teach the proper response to God's saving work, how we are to live as disciples.

All Souls Saturdays. There are five All Souls Saturdays during the Liturgical year when we pray the Divine Liturgy and remember our faithful departed by name. The first one this year is February 18th. If you wish to add names to the list of persons remembered in your family, known as "dyptychs" or "hramoty", please use the appropriate envelope in the offertory envelope packet. Please place it in the Sunday collection with the list of names you wish to add along with your offering for their remembrance. New parishioners should list their faithful departed whom they wish to remember in prayer on the reverse side of the envelope. It is also permissible to simply list "all the departed members of the (your family name) family" rather than each person by name. If you wish to update, delete or add new names to your hramoty listing, please contact the Parish Office during office hours. and recordings.

Triodion begins. We have entered the period of the Lenten prayer book, the Triodion, which began to be utilized last Sunday, the Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee. This book is used until the end of the Great Fast which takes place on the Friday before Lazarus Saturday. For the Great Forty-day Fast (Velikij Četyredesjatniči Post'), the Byzantine Church counts forty days from Monday after Cheese-Fare Sunday to Friday before Lazarus Saturday for a total of forty days. Lazarus Saturday and Palm Sunday are a two day feast interval before Great and Holy Week. The Latin Church begins Lent on Ash Wednesday and includes Holy Week but does not count Sundays to yield the forty days. The Byzantine Church also has a four Sunday, twenty-two day, pre-Fast period in order to prepare for the Great Fast. This is why the Triodion begins last Sunday. Today is the second of the four Sundays.

Praying our Lenten Resolution. A main feature of Sundays during the Triodion days is the use of the Lenten stichera "Open to me the Doors of Repentance" sung today and each Sunday from now to the 5th Sunday of the Great Fast. It sets forth the purpose of Great Fast and the Lenten theme. "Open to me the doors of repentance, O Giver of Life. As we worship in your temple this morning, teach us how to purify the temples of our bodies, and in your compassion, purify me by the goodness of your mercies." The second verse appeals to the Theotokos: "Lead me to the paths of salvation, O Theotokos, for I have condemned myself with shameful sins and have wasted my life in slothfulness. By your intercession, purify me from all sinfulness." The third and final verse reflects on Judgment Day: "When I think upon the multitude of evil deeds, I tremble for the terrible Judgment Day. But trusting in the compassion of your mercy, O Lord, I cry to you like David: Have mercy on me, O God, according to your great mercy. [Psalm 50]" The theme of the Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee is reflected in the first verse, the Sunday of the Prodigal Son in the second verse, and Meat-Fare Sunday in the third verse. From the Sunday of the Prodigal Son the solemn singing of the lament of an exile, Psalm 137, is added: "By the rivers of Babylon, we sat down and wept..."

Fasting Resumes. Last week, the week of the Publican and Pharisee, was a fast-free week. This week the regular rule of fasting resumes. Friday is a Day of Penance since every Friday is a weekly Great Friday as every Sunday is a weekly Pascha or Easter. Fridays outside of the fast periods (Great Fast, Christmas Fast, Apostles Fast, Dormition Fast) were changed from fast days to days of penance after Vatican Council II. One is to abstain from meat or to substitute prayers or works of charity taken on in place of fasting. During fast periods Fridays are not Days of Penance but are Days of Fast, the weekly day when Christ's Faithful join Him in His saving sufferings and life-giving death.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

End of Life Planning. The follow-up session with the Fairfax Memorial Park cemetery representative will be today, February 19th, between the Divine Liturgies.

Nut Roll Baking. Nut roll baking for Lenten Dinners will begin at 8:00 AM on Saturday, March 11th in the Parish Center. If you are interested in volunteering to help with this important endeavor please contact Kyra Gerardi at 571-733-7298. There are many opportunities to help in the baking process.

Treat your Sweetie to some Valentine's Day Candy. ELG will be selling Valentine's Day treats for your sweetie on Sunday, February 12 between Liturgies. Share the love or pick up a little something for yourself.

Bingo Help Needed. The Bingo program at Epiphany of Our Lord is in need of several volunteers. If you can help one Tuesday night a month, please contact Fr. John or the Parish Office at 703-573-3986 or email epiphanyoffourlord@verizon.net or Ed Gubanich at ED13456@aol.com.

Books for Lenten Reading. Our parishioner, Jack Figel, is the owner/publisher of Eastern Christian Publications. Jack would like his fellow parishioners to know that he has several titles that might be of interest to you for your Lenten discipline. These include: Back to the Garden, a pocket-size book of reflections on the Byzantine lectionary of Genesis by Father Jack Custer and others for $9.00; Journey through the Great Fast, $10.; and Unfinished Business, a book of daily spiritual reflections for the Great Fast by Marianne Sailus, $15. Also available are CD and DVD recordings of Our Lenten Journey, talks by Metropolitan Kallistos Ware, the noted Oxford professor; and The Eastern Fathers on Involuntary Sins by Father Maximus of Holy Resurrection (Romanian Catholic) Monastery,
