EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD Byzantine Catholic Church

The Sacraments – Our Life in Christ

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation - (Baptism, Chrismation, Holy Eucharist). We follow the command of the Lord to baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19). Chrismation (Confirmation) and Holy Eucharist (First Holy Communion) is imparted at the same time immediately following baptism Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Infants – is scheduled at the Divine Liturgy on Saturdays or Sundays during the year except certain fast periods. Sponsors must be Catholics in good standing and supply a sponsor card attesting to that from their parish. While two Catholics in good standing is usual, one baptized non-Catholic can function as a Christian Witness with the Catholic sponsor. Both must be at least sixteen years of age. Details are available at the parish office.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Adults – follows a period of catechuminate. This is a period of spiritual formation. Please see the priest or deacon.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Crowning in Marriage – According to the Pastoral Policy and Guidelines for Marriage Preparation for the Catholic Church in New Jersey, couples wishing to marry must inform the pastor one year before the date of the wedding and be free to marry in the Catholic Church. Couples will meet with the priest and deacon in four sessions – to begin the pre-nuptial investigation, to take FOCCUS, a communications, values and religious inventory approved for use in the Catholic dioceses/eparchies, to complete the pre-nuptial investigation and for a session on the theology of the mystery (sacrament). They are also required to attend Pre-Cana or Engaged Encounter.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance – The Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance is regularly available each Saturday 11:30 AM – 12:00 Noon. In addition, confessions are heard during the Christmas Fast (Advent) and the Great Fast (Lent) on Sundays between the Divine Liturgies. Visiting confessors are also scheduled at special times during the Great Fast. Confessions are also heard on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Great and Holy Week to prepare for the observance of the Lord’s Resurrection.

Anointing of the Sick – Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life endangering medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves of the sacrament of penance and anointing of the sick. If surgery is scheduled, please consider confession and anointing at the church before entering the hospital since there is more privacy for confession and less chance of interruption for confession and anointing. If you are unable to come to church, please call the rectory. Families of parishioners who have a medical emergency should contact the rectory office so one of the priests can go the hospital.

Holy Communion and Visitation of the Sick – Holy Communion is brought to our parishioners who are ill at the hospital or at home by the deacon on Sundays and at other times by arrangement. Please contact the deacon or the rectory office by Friday prior to the Sunday communion visitation.

Funeral Services – The Office of Christian Burial is offered in ways to accommodate the needs of the family. The Epiphany Ladies Guild as part of their charity offers a Mercy Meal for families at the Parish Center following the interment. Epiphany of our Lord cemetery is a portion of Fairfax Memorial Park. Parishioners who are interested in purchasing cemetery plots should see the deacon.

Byzantine Catholic Mission of Montgomery County – Divine Liturgy: Sunday 10:00 AM; Religious Education & Social Hour 11:15 – 12:15; 20501 Goshen Road, Gaithersburg, MD; (301) 482-0282.

LITURGY AND LIFE

Prayer Intentions. Please remember in prayer: Barbara Mohay, Michael Mikulak, Patricia Fedorko, Marge Rusnak, David Sayen, Marsha Puhak, Helen Capar, and Mary McDonnell. Please pray for these friends and relatives of parishioners: Shirley Anne Markham, Jeffrey Mikulak, Francine O'Leary, Russell Plasha, William Brokaw, Maureen Guth, Linda Fisher, Tim O'Leary, Joanne Gaudino, Eric McDonnell, Patricia Delfine, and Rev. Joseph Jugan.

Prayers for our Parishioners. The particular law of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church directs: “The pastor is to celebrate the Divine Liturgy for the people of the parish entrusted to him on Sundays and days of precept [holy days of obligation]” (canon 294). This liturgy intention for all parishioners is “For the intention of our Parishioners.” The faithful who attend the Divine Liturgy for the parishioners participate, according to their state, in praying for that intention. We can continue this prayer for one another during the week by remembering several parishioners and families each week. Please remember this week: Anne and Charles Neary & family, Ronald and Susan Noff, Christina and Doug Nevitt & family, Carlton Noffsinger, David and Laura Norod & family, Katie and Andrew Nowakowski, Carol and Gary Noyes & family, and from the Mission: Robert and Margaret Karam.

Holy Year-Merciful like the Father. Pope Francis asks us to be God-like and practice the Spiritual Works of Mercy and the Corporal Works of Mercy. This is a special Sunday in the liturgical calendar of the Latin Church. It is Divine Mercy Sunday. This commemoration was introduced by Pope John Paul II. Mankind's need for the message of Divine Mercy took on dire urgency in the 20th Century, when civilization began to experience an "eclipse of the sense of God" and, therefore to lose the understanding of the sanctity and inherent dignity of human life. In the 1930s, Jesus chose a humble Polish nun, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, to receive private revelations concerning Divine Mercy that were recorded in her Diary. St. John Paul explains: "This was precisely the time when those ideologies of evil, nazism and communism, were taking shape. Sister Faustina became the herald of the one message capable of off-setting the evil of those ideologies, that fact that God is mercy—the truth of the merciful Christ. And for this reason, when I was called to the See of Peter, I felt impelled to pass on those experiences of a fellow Pole that deserve a place in the treasury of the universal Church" Pope Saint John Paul II, Memory and Identity (2005). "As a gift to humanity, which sometimes seems bewildered and overwhelmed by the power of evil, selfishness, and fear, the Risen Lord offers His love that pardons, reconciles, and reopens hearts to love. It is a love that converts hearts and gives peace. How much the world needs to understand and accept Divine Mercy!" "What is mercy if not the boundless love of God, who confronted with human sin, restrains the sentiment of severe justice and, allowing Himself to be moved by the wretchedness of His creatures, spurs Himself to the total gift of self, in the Son's cross...? Who can say that he is free from sin and does not need God's mercy? As people of this restless time of ours, wavering between the emptiness of self-exaltation and the humiliation of despair, we have a greater need than ever for a regenerating experience of mercy." St. Pope John Paul II, Regina Caeli message, April 10, 1994. "Lord, who reveals the Father's love by Your death and Resurrection, we believe in You and confidently repeat to You today: Jesus, I trust in You, have mercy upon us and upon the whole world." St. Pope John Paul II, Regina Caeli message prepared for Divine Mercy Sunday, April 3, 2005 quoting the Divine Mercy chaplet.

Fasting Regulations. Fridays resume as Days of Penance, that is, we abstain from meat or we do an equivalent penitential act or an act of charity.

Paschal Rituals. We express our joy in the resurrection by several rituals during the forty days of Pascha: (1) As a sign of the joy that is ours in the resurrection, we do not kneel from Easter Sunday until Pentecost for any of the liturgical services, for the time of penance is completed, and joy now reigns. We stand instead of kneeling and we stand whenever Christ is risen is sung. We sit at the epistle and homily. You may sit at the litanies, the first and second antiphons and the Troparia. You may sit at other times, except when Christ is risen is sung. (2) After Bright Week, commemorations are made for intentions, but with the proper response of "Many years..." or "Eternal Memory."(3) The Artos (Greek: Bread), blessed and placed on the tetrapod on Pascha is broken and distributed today. The risen Lord ate with his disciples during the forty days from Pascha to Ascension. Jesus said, "I am the living Bread that came down from heaven" (John 6:51). The Artos is placed in the middle of the churches "in full view of the faithful to serve as their same reminder of the invisible presence of the Lord with us" (Bulgakov, Kiev, 1900).

Blessed Palms and Willows should be kept in your home, usually at the icon corner or crucifix, as a witness to the Lord's presence in your life. Last year's palms and willows are blessed sacramentals and should be destroyed by burning or burying them or bring them to the hall in the chapel basement and place them in the receptacle provided. Do not throw them into the garbage.

Jubilee Year Indulgences. Bishop Kurt has asked that in churches with a Holy Door, an appropriate prayer-service followed by the Sacrament of Penance should be offered once each month on the first or second Saturday. Our parish will be praying the Moleben to Jesus, the Lover of Mankind.

St. Thomas Sunday Luncheon. The St. Thomas Sunday Luncheon is prepared by Epiphany Ladies Guild and features the foods from the Easter Basket: ham, kolbassi, cheese, pascha, beet-horseradish, and nut roll. The original name, still preserved, for Thomas Sunday is Antipascha, the Return to Pascha. Since all of Bright Week is one long day of Easter Sunday, the Sunday after Easter was the return to the Sunday of Easter. The neophytes who were baptized at the Easter Vigil Liturgy on Great Saturday night wore their white baptismal robes all of bright Week until today, when they remove them. We also return to the food of which we partook on Easter. Come, celebrate the Return to the Pascha with us, your brothers and sisters. Christ is risen! Indeed He is risen!

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Epiphany Ladies Guild. Epiphany Ladies Guild will meet tomorrow, April 4th. Light refreshments will be served at 7:00 PM with a brief meeting following. The special event for this month, Antiques Road Show, will begin at 8:00 PM. It promises to be a fun and informative evening. Come join us!

It's Time to Start Your Spring Cleaning! The BCY is conducting a donation drive to raise funds for the ByzanTEEN Youth rally this year. Since donated clothes are not accepted at the Slavic American Festival Rummage Sale in the Fall, bring them in for the BCY Flea Market this Spring! The BCY is looking for donations of gently used clothes and/or other items such as household goods, toys, furniture, etc. Donations can be dropped off in the chapel basement on the following today Sunday, April 3rd, from 9:30 am to 11:00 am. These items will be sold at the Flea Market this Saturday, April 9th, sponsored by the BCY. The hours for the Flea Market are 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM.
