EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD Byzantine Catholic Church

The Sacraments – Our Life in Christ

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation - (Baptism, Chrismation, Holy Eucharist). We follow the command of the Lord to baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19). Chrismation (Confirmation) and Holy Eucharist (First Holy Communion) is imparted at the same time immediately following baptism.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Infants – is scheduled at the Divine Liturgy on Saturdays or Sundays during the year except certain fast periods. Sponsors must be Catholics in good standing and supply a sponsor card attesting to that from their parish. While two Catholics in good standing is usual, one baptized non-Catholic can function as a Christian Witness with the Catholic sponsor. Both must be at least sixteen years of age. Details are available at the parish office.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Adults – follows a period of catechuminate. This is a period of spiritual formation. Please see the priest or deacon.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Crowning in Marriage – According to the Pastoral Policy and Guidelines for Marriage Preparation for the Catholic Church in New Jersey, couples wishing to marry must inform the pastor one year before the date of the wedding and be free to marry in the Catholic Church. Couples will meet with the priest and deacon in four sessions – to begin the pre-nuptial investigation, to take FOCCUS, a communications, values and religious inventory approved for use in the Catholic dioceses/eparchies, to complete the pre-nuptial investigation and for a session on the theology of the mystery (sacrament). They are also required to attend Pre-Cana or Engaged Encounter.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance – The Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance is regularly available each Saturday 11:30 AM – 12:00 Noon. In addition, confessions are heard during the Christmas Fast (Advent) and the Great Fast (Lent) on Sundays between the Divine Liturgies. Visiting confessors are also scheduled at special times during the Great Fast. Confessions are also heard on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Great and Holy Week to prepare for the observance of the Lord’s Resurrection.

Anointing of the Sick – Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life endangering medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves of the sacrament of penance and anointing of the sick. If surgery is scheduled, please consider confession and anointing at the church before entering the hospital since there is more privacy for confession and less chance of interruption for confession and anointing. If you are unable to come to church, please call the rectory. Families of parishioners who have a medical emergency should contact the rectory office so one of the priests can go the hospital.

Holy Communion and Visitation of the Sick – Holy Communion is brought to our parishioners who are ill at the hospital or at home by the deacon on Sundays and at other times by arrangement. Please contact the deacon or the rectory office by Friday prior to the Sunday communion visitation.

Funeral Services – The Office of Christian Burial is offered in ways to accommodate the needs of the family. The Epiphany Ladies Guild as part of their charity offers a Mercy Meal for families at the Parish Center following the interment. Epiphany of our Lord cemetery is a portion of Fairfax Memorial Park. Parishioners who are interested in purchasing cemetery plots should see the deacon.

Byzantine Catholic Mission of Montgomery County – Divine Liturgy: Sunday 10:00 AM; Religious Education & Social Hour 11:15 – 12:15; 20501 Goshen Road, Gaithersburg, MD; (301) 482-0282.

LITURGY AND LIFE

Prayer Intentions. Please remember in prayer: Michael Mikulak, Patricia Fedorko, David Sayen, Helen Capar, Mary McDonnell, Mary Gaydos, Justine Ferrari, Julia Zdynak, Louis Shanks, Peter Wegman. Please pray for these friends and relatives of parishioners: Shirley Anne Markham, Jeffrey Mikulak, Francine O’Leary, Russell Plasha, William Brokaw, Maureen Guth, Tim O’Leary, Joanne Gaudino, Patricia Delfine, Rev. Joseph Jugan, Wayne Bowman, Steven Goula, Fr. Phillip Scott, Mary Jewette and Luke Kolar, friend of Jennifer Strickland.

Prayers for our Parishioners. The particular law of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church directs: “The pastor is to celebrate the Divine Liturgy for the people of the parish entrusted to him on Sundays and days of precept [holy days of obligation]” (canon 294). This liturgy intention for all parishioners is “For the intention of our Parishioners.” The faithful who attend the Divine Liturgy for the parishioners participate, according to their state, in praying for that intention. We can continue this prayer for one another during the week by remembering several parishioners and families each week. Please remember this week: James & Joyce Beiermann & family, Kevin & Theresa Bell & family, Bret Bellamy, John & Patricia Berezny & family, J. Charles Bernard, Amelia Bordas and from the Mission, Lawrence & Debra Baranyi & family.

Jubilee Year Indulgences. Bishop Kurt has asked that in churches with a Holy Door, an appropriate prayer-service followed by the Sacrament of Penance should be offered once each month on the first or second Saturday. Our parish will be praying the Moleben to Jesus, the Lover of Mankind.

Holy Year-Merciful like the Father. Pope Francis asks us to be God-like and practice the Spiritual Works of Mercy and the Corporal Works of Mercy. In the gospel appointed for the 15th Sunday after Pentecost, Matthew 22:35-46, our Lord had responded to an unfriendly confrontation by Sadducees and now to an equally unfriendly challenge by Pharisees in the temple in Jerusalem on Great Monday before His crucifixion. A scholar of the Law of Moses among the group of Pharisees poses the question, “Which of the 613 commandments of the Law of Moses is greatest?” Jesus’ response is from the Book of Deuteronomy 6:5, “You shall love the LORD (i.e., YHWH in English I AM WHO AM) with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.” Jesus goes on to say there is a second commandment like the first, and He quotes Leviticus 19:18: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” Then, Jesus challenges the Pharisees and their expert with a problem of His own: who is the David’s descendant, the Messiah? The answer, quoting David’s Psalm 110, is the Messiah is God Himself. A reading of several verses preceding Leviticus 19:18 provides ample ways to be merciful to one’s neighbor and to love them as another self. The challenge by Jesus about Psalm 110 is a declaration by Jesus that He is the Messiah and the Messiah is God Himself.

So, the presentation of Leviticus—the love of neighbor, as similar to the Greatest Commandment—total love of God is what gives the greatest comfort to the command of merciful love because it is not just wise advice from a human but it is truth from God. In the epistle appointed 2nd Corinthians, 4:6-15 Saint Paul explains that apostles are daily in danger of death in imitation of their Lord, Jesus, who died so humans may live. He sums up this work of divine mercy in which the apostles have been chosen to participate by writing: “Everything indeed is for you so that the grace bestowed in abundance on more and more people may cause the thanksgiving to overflow for the glory of God.”

Lamp and Light. Epiphany Bible Study will begin in October. The Bible Study will study the Sacred Scripture according to the four “senses” of traditional Bible interpretation, that is, the literal or historical sense, and the three spiritual senses: allegorical, moral, and future senses, and its application to our lives. The Bible is one half of the Tradition (with a capital “T” to distinguish it from traditions of theology, law, spirituality, liturgical practices), which is the living transmission of the message of God given to the Church and entrusted to the apostles and their successors, the bishops. Both the oral preaching and the written message of salvation are preserved as a living deposit of Faith and handed on to each generation. The written part of Tradition, the Bible, can only be understood and interpreted by the oral part of Tradition. Lamp and Light is a result of the Vibrant Parish Assessment (a Diagnostic Assessment of the Major Archbishopal Ukrainian Catholic Church) Bishop Burnette presented to pastors of the Eparchy of Passaic. The assessment stated: “Teach people how to live Sacred Scripture.” The Holy Spirit inspired King David to write in Psalm 119: “Your Word, O Lord, is a Lamp to my feet, a Light to my eyes” (Psalm 119:105).

Voluntary Day of Abstinence. August 29th is the feast of the Beheading of Saint John the Baptist. The traditional fast is a strict fast from meat and dairy products. The traditional fast included a fast day from any foods in the shape of a head, cabbage, apples, lettuce, etc. Websites of the Transcarpathian oblast’ that list holidays and holydays mention fasting from anything in the shape of a head and not eating anything from a platter. Since this murder was planned at an indulgent banquet and was committed during the banquet, Christ’s faithful are invited to fast as a means to virtue and holiness of life and receive Holy Communion at the Messiah’s Banquet, the Divine Liturgy.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Festival Raffle. The 2016 Slavic American Festival Raffle letter went out last week. If you have not received your letter, please contact Chris Braunlich.

Nut - Roll Sales. Nut rolls will be sold on all Sundays until the festival to enable the parishioners who work at the festival to have an opportunity to purchase them. They will be sold each Sunday at the church hall between the two liturgies.

Festival Volunteers. The 43rd Annual Slavic American Festival will be held on Sunday, September 11, 2016 from 12:00 Noon until 6:00 PM. All events are run by parishioners for our guests, and proceeds from this annual event support the church building fund. Any parishioner who is not yet helping with an event is invited to volunteer by contacting an event chairperson, or Jack Figel at 703-691-8585 or by email: jackfigel@verizon.net.

Silent Auction Items Needed! The 3rd Annual Epiphany Silent Auction will be held during the Slavic American Festival on September 11, 2016. Donations will be accepted from June 1 until September 4, 2016. The more items we have in the silent auction the greater success the auction will be. Thinking of what you can donate? Silent auction donations should have a value of $25 or more. Donations can be professional services, memorabilia, gift cards, dinners, overnight stays, special item(s), event or sporting tickets, theme baskets, handcrafted items, etc. Have a donation? Contact Terry Matlaga Bell @ tmatlaga@yahoo.com. Remember to visit the web site www.slavicamericanfestival.com and like us on Face Book.

Festival Bake Sale: Every year, your generous donations of baked goods make our Bake Sale a success! Every flavor & shape is welcome. Keep in mind that low calorie or gluten free offerings are also welcomed! So please pull out your favorite recipes and let the baking begin! Label your donation being sure to include content details (nuts/no nuts, low fat, gluten free etc.) your name, and the words “Festival Bake Sale” on it. Place it in the Parish Center walk-in freezer, or the kitchen refrigerator if delivered the festival weekend. Thank you in advance! Your donations are deeply appreciated. Maryanne Berezny Smith, Bake Sale Chair. Questions? Please call 703 283 2564 or email me at mbreezyl@verizon.net

Festival Rummage Sale. Thinking of cleaning out your basement or storage closets? Please consider bringing these still useful items to Epiphany for the Slavic American Rummage Sale. Please no clothing, car parts, Major appliances, tires, etc. Donations continue to be accepted until next Sunday, September 4th on the following schedule: Sundays between Divine Liturgies and for 30 minutes after the 10:30 AM Divine Liturgy; Tuesday evenings from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM and Saturdays 11:00 AM to 12:00 Noon. For more information or to volunteer to help with the rummage sale, call Tony at 703-323-3650.
