EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD Byzantine Catholic Church

The Sacraments – Our Life in Christ

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation - (Baptism, Chrismation, Holy Eucharist). We follow the command of the Lord to baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19). Chrismation (Confirmation) and Holy Eucharist (First Holy Communion) is imparted at the same time immediately following baptism Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Infants – is scheduled at the Divine Liturgy on Saturdays or Sundays during the year except certain fast periods. Sponsors must be Catholics in good standing and supply a sponsor card attesting to that from their parish. While two Catholics in good standing is usual, one baptized non-Catholic can function as a Christian Witness with the Catholic sponsor. Both must be at least sixteen years of age. Details are available at the parish office.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Adults – follows a period of catechuminate. This is a period of spiritual formation. Please see the priest or deacon.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Crowning in Marriage – According to the Pastoral Policy and Guidelines for Marriage Preparation for the Catholic Church in New Jersey, couples wishing to marry must inform the pastor one year before the date of the wedding and be free to marry in the Catholic Church. Couples will meet with the priest and deacon in four sessions – to begin the pre-nuptial investigation, to take FOCCUS, a communications, values and religious inventory approved for use in the Catholic dioceses/eparchies, to complete the pre-nuptial investigation and for a session on the theology of the mystery (sacrament). They are also required to attend Pre-Cana or Engaged Encounter.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance – The Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance is regularly available each Saturday 11:30 AM – 12:00 Noon. In addition, confessions are heard during the Christmas Fast (Advent) and the Great Fast (Lent) on Sundays between the Divine Liturgies. Visiting confessors are also scheduled at special times during the Great Fast. Confessions are also heard on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Great and Holy Week to prepare for the observance of the Lord’s Resurrection.

Anointing of the Sick – Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life endangering medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves of the sacrament of penance and anointing of the sick. If surgery is scheduled, please consider confession and anointing at the church before entering the hospital since there is more privacy for confession and less chance of interruption for confession and anointing. If you are unable to come to church, please call the rectory. Families of parishioners who have a medical emergency should contact the rectory office so one of the priests can go the hospital.

Holy Communion and Visitation of the Sick – Holy Communion is brought to our parishioners who are ill at the hospital or at home by the deacon on Sundays and at other times by arrangement. Please contact the deacon or the rectory office by Friday prior to the Sunday communion visitation.

Funeral Services – The Office of Christian Burial is offered in ways to accommodate the needs of the family. The Epiphany Ladies Guild as part of their charity offers a Mercy Meal for families at the Parish Center following the interment. Epiphany of our Lord cemetery is a portion of Fairfax Memorial Park. Parishioners who are interested in purchasing cemetery plots should see the deacon.

Byzantine Catholic Mission of Montgomery County – Divine Liturgy: Sunday 10:00 AM; Religious Education & Social Hour 11:15 – 12:15; 20501 Goshen Road, Gaithersburg, MD; (301) 482-0282.

LITURGY AND LIFE

Prayer Intentions. Please remember in prayer: Michael Mikulak, Patricia Fedorko, David Sayen, Mary McDonnell, Mary Gaydos, Justine Ferrari, Julia Zdynak, Louis Shanks, Peter Wegman. Please pray for these friends and relatives of parishioners: Shirley Anne Markham, Jeffrey Mikulak, Francine O’Leary, Russell Plasha, William Brokaw, Maureen Guth, Tim O’Leary, Joanne Gaudino, Patricia Delfine, Rev. Joseph Jugan, Wayne Bowman, Steven Goula, Fr. Phillip Scott, Mary Jewette and Luke Kolar.

Prayers for our Parishioners. The particular law of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church directs: “The pastor is to celebrate the Divine Liturgy for the people of the parish entrusted to him on Sundays and days of precept [holy days of obligation]” (canon 294). This liturgy intention for all parishioners is “For the intention of our Parishioners.” The faithful who attend the Divine Liturgy for the parishioners participate, according to their state, in praying for that intention. We can continue this prayer for one another during the week by remembering several parishioners and families each week. Please remember this week: Joanne and Randall Borden & family, Daniel Bower, Chris and Eileen Braunlich & family, Stephen Braunlich, Rose Brodnos, Mary Brooks, M. Gabriele Brown, and from the Mission, Rosemary Chisarick.

Jubilee Year Indulgences. Bishop Kurt has asked that in churches with a Holy Door, an appropriate prayer-service followed by the Sacrament of Penance should be offered once each month on the first or second Saturday. Our parish will be praying the Moleben to Jesus, the Lover of Mankind.

Holy Year-Merciful like the Father. Pope Francis asks us to be God-like and practice the Spiritual Works of Mercy and the Corporal Works of Mercy. In the epistle appointed for the 16th Sunday after Pentecost, 2 Corinthians 6:1-10, Saint Paul describes the ministry of the apostles as one of “afflictions, hardships, constraints, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, vigils, and fasts.” The result of this kind of life for the sake of Jesus is both “glory and dishonor, insult and praise,...as poor but enriching many.” However, before he shares all this with the reader, he reminds us that the apostles (and their successors the bishops) are to be working together with us for the glorious task of saving souls from the devil. This great work of mercy is possible, Saint Paul writes, because we have received, each in proportion to one’s calling and station in the Church, God’s grace which makes it possible for us all to do our labor for the love of Jesus and love expressed as mercy for our neighbor.

Lamp and Light. Epiphany Bible Study will begin in October. The Bible Study will study the Sacred Scripture according to the four “senses” of traditional Bible interpretation, that is, the literal or historical sense, and the three spiritual senses: allegorical, moral, and future senses, and its application to our lives.

The Bible study opens up the meaning of the word of God by applying the oral part of Tradition. The Bible is one half of the Tradition (with a capital “T” to distinguish it from traditions of theology, law, spirituality, liturgical practices), which is the living transmission of the message of God given to the Church and entrusted to the apostles and their successors, the bishops. Both the oral preaching and the written message of salvation are preserved as a living deposit of Faith and handed on to each generation. The written part of Tradition, the Bible, can only be understood and interpreted by the oral part of Tradition. Lamp and Light is a result of the Vibrant Parish Assessment (a Diagnostic Assessment of the Major Archiepiscopal Ukrainian Catholic Church) Bishop Burnette presented to pastors of the Eparchy of Passaic. The assessment stated: “Teach people how to live Sacred Scripture.” The Holy Spirit inspired King David to write in Psalm 119: “Your Word, O Lord, is a Lamp to my feet, a Light to my eyes” (Psalm 119:105).

Sacraments of Initiation. We welcome into the Mystical Body of Christ, Nicholas Adrian Dubiansky, son of John Dubiansky and Noelle Sitthikul, baptized, chrismated and communicated on Sunday, August 28th. May God grant Nicholas Adrian a pure Profession of Faith all the days of his life. Mnohaja l’ita!

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Parish Office Schedule. In observance of Labor Day, a federal holiday, the parish office will be closed tomorrow, September 5th. Office hours will resume Tuesday, September 6th.

Epiphany Ladies Guild. Tomorrow, September 5th, is the next meeting of Epiphany Ladies Guild. Light refreshments will be served at 7:00 PM with the meeting following at 7:30 PM.

Nut - Roll Sales. Nut rolls will be sold on all Sundays until the festival to enable the parishioners who work at the festival to have an opportunity to purchase them. They will be sold each Sunday at the church hall between the two liturgies.

Congratulations. Congratulations to the Parishioners of Epiphany Church for surpassing our Bishop’s Appeal 2015 goal of $19,800. With achieving this feat, we were awarded a Refund of 40% on the Total Amount Donated. We received a check for $7,932.40 which has been applied to the New Boiler Fund. With this achievement alone, we have reached 17% of the estimated cost of the Replacement Boiler. We also need to acknowledge that the Epiphany Mission Church surpassed the Bishop’s Appeal goal of $6,000. The Mission has earned $2,497.33 as their refund. Way to Go! And Thanks to all for your pledges and donations.

Condolences. We offer our condolences to the family of Helen Capar, who passed away Thursday, September 1. The Funeral will be from Epiphany of our Lord Church Thursday, September 8th at the end of the 10:00 AM holyday Liturgy. Mourners will be received at Fairfax Memorial Funeral Home, Wednesday, September 7. More details about the visitation and prayers will be determined. The interment will be at Fairfax Memorial Park following the Funeral.
