Prayers for our Parishioners. The particular law of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church directs that the pastor is to celebrate the Divine Liturgy for the people of the parish entrusted to him on Sundays and days of precept [holydays of obligation]" (canon 294). This liturgy intention for all parishioners is "For the Intention of Parishioners." The faithful who attend the Divine Liturgy for the parishioners who participate, according to their state, in praying for that intention. We can continue this prayer for one another during the week by remembering several parishioners' families each week. Please Michael and Amy Tysarczyk and family, Lawrence and Johanna Urgo & family, Jennifer and David Valeck, Lynn Valko, Anthony Vara, John Vernoski, Mary E. Vieira, Mary Elizabeth Vieira, and from the Mission, Steven Krempasky.

One Liturgy. Liturgy every Sunday and holyday of obligation must by canon law be for the intention of parishioners. If a second Sunday Liturgy is offered, an intention can be accepted. Since we have had only one Sunday Divine Liturgy for fourteen Sundays, the Liturgy was for the Intention of our Parishioners. As a result, the intentions requested for the second Liturgy on Sundays have not been offered. The celebrant can pray for additional intentions during the Liturgy, for example, the priest is required to pray for the bishop who ordained him at every Liturgy he offers. The celebrant will pray for the intention parishioners have offered. Please note that this does not persolve the Liturgy intention requested. There was no intention scheduled for the Divine Liturgy for Sunday, November 22nd. Any Sunday liturgy intention previously scheduled will be rescheduled when a priest is assigned which would make two liturgies a possibility again.

Public Liturgies. The Commonwealth of Virginia began Phase Three July 1st. In his episcopal letter of May 13th, Bishop Kurt Burnette announced that churches may reopen for public worship according to the directives of the public health authorities and with the bishop's permission. For churches, Phase Three requirements are the same as Phase One requirements. This means that the Parish Strategic Plan and the Eparchial Checklist is still applicable. This means churches may open at 50% of capacity provided health department requirements are met. It is important for public health not to slacken in observing the Strategic Plan. Bishop Kurt continues to dispense so those who are at risk or feel unsafe may remain at home. Please keep in mind that Divine Law still requires us to keep the Lord's Day holy by prayer and by refraining from unnecessary work. The bishop cannot dispense Divine Law. Further, the Bishop had encouraged all to make a good confession later in the year when it is safe.

Live Streaming. In response to the spiritual needs the Faithful of Epiphany, the Divine Liturgy of the Twenty –fifth Sunday after Pentecost today will be live streamed. Please remember that because of the Lukan Jump, the readings from Luke will actually be those of the Twenty-sixth Sunday after Pentecost.

Praying at Home Together. If you are remaining safe at home, you may consider praying the Divine Liturgy in your homes so that we can be united in praying the same prayers. These are available on the web site of the Metropolitan Cantor Institute of the Archeparchy of Pittsburgh, <https://mci.archpitt.org>. The entire People's Molitvennik is available under Publications tab to use when participating in the live streaming Liturgy.

Christmas Fast. The forty day Christmas Fast began last Sunday, November 15th to December 24th. Another name for the Christmas Fast is Philip's Fast because November 14th is the feast of Saint Philip and the fast begins according to liturgical time the evening of November 14th. The Christmas Fast offers several feasts: the Entrance of the Mother of God in the Temple, November 21st, Saint Nicholas, December 6th, Conception of Saint Ann (Immaculate Conception), December 8th, two special commemoration Sundays before Christmas and several aliturgical days when the Divine Liturgy is not celebrated, usually on the day of an Old Testament prophet and it can be recalled that the prophets and people of the Old Testament waited for the coming of the Messiah. Fridays remain as days of penance and in the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church in the United States the other fasting prescriptions of the Christmas Fast are left to the ability of the individual.

Messages from the Pastor. Father John has been sending email messages to the parishioners whose email addresses we have on our roster. If you have not been receiving these email messages, it might be because we do not have your email address, or you have changed it and we do not have it. We would like to have your email address to keep contact with you during this time when some parishioners are remaining safe at home. Simply email the parish Intentions to be Rescheduled. If you have offered a Divine Liturgy for an intention to be celebrated during the suspension, you will be contacted to reschedule. Jamie has begun rescheduling weekday liturgy requests according to the date of the request. If you have scheduled a weekday liturgy, that liturgy will remain on the date requested. However, if you scheduled a liturgy on a Sunday, the intention will not be rescheduled until after the pandemic or until Bishop Kurt is able to assign a second priest to be able to celebrate two Sunday liturgies.

Thank You. Deacon Peter would like to thank Tricia, Marlene, Bill and Teresa for the many hours they dedicated to cleaning and preparing for the reception of the Mystery of Repentance Saturday and Renewal of Baptismal Vows and Communion on Sunday. Thank you so very much.

- Deacon Peter Turko

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Parish Office Holiday Schedule. The parish office will be closed Thursday, November 26 and November 27 in observance of Thanksgiving. Regular office hours will resume Monday, November 30.

EMC Awards Club. The Fall Epiphany Men's Club Awards Club Raffle has begun. The drawing takes place every Sunday for ten weeks. The holder of the winning ticket of each of the first nine drawings is awarded $50. The winner of the tenth and final drawing takes home $1000. The winner of the fifth drawing is Mary McDonnell, #099. CORRECTION: The winning number for last week was 025, Olga Osterberg.

ELG Christmas Bread and Food. ELG will continue their successful Freezer Sales on December 6th and 13th. Pirohi, nut and apricot rolls, and chocolates will be for sale. Also, freshly baked Christmas Bread for Holy Supper will be available. Masks must be worn by customers.

On-line Giving Now Set Up. Bishop Kurt directed that all parishes have online giving service in place with www.tithe.ly.com by August 31, 2020. Both the parish and the mission now have online accounts with tithe.ly and these can be accessed at the church or mission web sites. To make an online contribution, go to the church web site. On the home page is a link that says Epiphany of our Lord online donation. Click on that and you will be directed to Epiphany's tithe.ly account. Please note that where you see Offertory, that is a drop-down menu that allows the donor to specify what the donation is for: Sunday offertory, Building Fund, St. Nicholas Fund, or eparchial collections. Please show care in the category Recurring Giving. If it is not a donation to be given each week or month, please make that adjustment that this is a one-time donation.

EMC Bingo. Due to the Pandemic, Bingo has been suspended indefinitely. Observance of local, state, Catholic Mutual, and eparchial requirements for safe distancing and sanitizing does not make reopening Bingo economically feasible. We will continue to monitor health and scientific information as it becomes available to guide the determination of opening safely for our parishioners and Bingo patrons.

Parish Bulletin. The parish bulletin will continue to be posted weekly on the Epiphany website:

www.colbcc.org. It will also be posted on the bulletin board in the narthex and photograph of the bulletin can be taken.

Executive Order. Governor Ralph Northam announced that Phase Three began July 1st. The parish office was informed that as a result of a recent lawsuit filed by four pastors, the Commonwealth has agreed to not impose more restrictions upon church gatherings than over other businesses and gatherings. This decision has not yet been indicated in the Governor's Orders section in the Commonwealth of Virginia web site. It must be remembered that many of the practices followed in our church are mandated from the Bishop: every other pew closed, six foot markings, wooden spoons or metal spoons that are sanitized in an autoclave, Holy Communion procession, as well as restrictions on fellowship halls and gatherings.

Parish Office Schedule and Safety Protocols. In accordance with Bishop Kurt Burnette's and Governor Northam's most recent Orders, the office hours for Epiphany of our Lord continue to be amended to the following: Monday through Friday - 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM. Jamie, the administrative assistant, will cover the office during those hours from home two days of the week. She will be teleworking Tuesday afternoon and all day Thursday. She will be physically in the parish office Monday, Wednesday, and Friday only. Lucie, the financial assistant, is working in the office only three days a week. She will be in the office Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Given that response to this crisis is so fluid and schedules can change so quickly, please call the office phone number before venturing out. Parish staff has established safety and health protocols at the parish office, as well. If you have business at the office, please use the new doorbell. We will respond through the intercom after verifying your presence at the door. Jamie is able to respond to the door from home as well. Please wear a mask and use the hand sanitizer station when you come into the office and observe social distancing. We are only able to accommodate three adults in the office including two staff members observing safe distancing.

Mission Update. According to Jack McLaurin Montgomery County has approved our Right-of-Way disturbance permit and the mission needs to post a $1,000 bond. Jack is preparing our Building Permit applications so that SWM and Building Permit application can be approved around the same time. The office has completed finance documents for the heating oil contractor to supply oil. Obtaining service providers and the detail of work to be performed, restoring trash service pick up, as well as planning to set up the Verizon telephone service has begun at the Mission Estate. Icon copies for the icon screen have been received.

MiTel Telephone System Deployment. The new MiTel phone system has been fully activated. We ask for your patience as we continue to learn various operations on the phone.

Book Store. The Bookstore is open by appointment only. Please contact a Bookstore manager and be prepared to wear a mask and not to use the rest rooms in the Social Hall.

Restroom Availability FYI. There are no campus restrooms open to the public, including our vendors. We have only two buildings being cleaned weekly, the church for our parishioners and the parish office for our office staff. The day care bathrooms are for the exclusive use of the day care children and staff and restricted for their safety.

EPARCHIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS & OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bishop's Appeal. The Bishop's Appeal 2020 began October 1st. Parishioners should have received their Bishop's Appeal Pledge forms. Pledges and payments will be accepted through June 1, 2021. Any contributions received after December 31, 2020, must be attributed to the 2021 tax year. The goal for this year's campaign is the same as last year, $19,800. If we reach goal, we will receive a 40% refund of the total received.

EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD Byzantine Catholic Church

The Sacraments – Our Life in Christ

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation - (Baptism, Chrismation, Holy Eucharist). We follow the command of the Lord to baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19). Chrismation (Confirmation) and Holy Eucharist (First Holy Communion) is imparted at the same time immediately following baptism Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Infants – is scheduled at the Divine Liturgy on Saturdays or Sundays during the year except certain fast periods. Sponsors must be Catholics in good standing and supply a sponsor card attesting to that from their parish. While two Catholics in good standing is usual, one baptized non-Catholic can function as a Christian Witness with the Catholic sponsor. Both must be at least sixteen years of age. Details are available at the parish office.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Adults – follows a period of catechumenate. This is a period of spiritual formation. Please see the priest or deacon.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Crowning in Marriage – According to the Pastoral Policy and Guidelines for Marriage Preparation for the Catholic Church in New Jersey, couples wishing to marry must inform the pastor one year before the date of the wedding and be free to marry in the Catholic Church. Couples will meet with the priest and deacon in four sessions – to begin the pre-nuptial investigation, to take FOCCUS, a communications, values and religious inventory approved for use in the Catholic dioceses/eparchies, to complete the pre-nuptial investigation and for a session on the theology of the mystery (sacrament). They are also required to attend Pre-Cana or Engaged Encounter.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance – The Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance is regularly available each Saturday 11:30 AM – 12:00 Noon. In addition, confessions are heard during the Christmas Fast (Advent) and the Great Fast (Lent) at other scheduled times. Visiting confessors are also scheduled at special times during the Great Fast. Confessions are also heard on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Great and Holy Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life endangering medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves Week to prepare for the observance of the Lord's Resurrection.

Anointing of the Sick – Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life-threatening medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves of the sacrament of penance and anointing of the sick. If surgery is scheduled, please consider confession and anointing at the church before entering the hospital since there is more privacy for confession and less chance of interruption for confession and anointing. If you are unable to come to church, please call the rectory. Families of parishioners who have a medical emergency should contact the rectory office so one of the priests can go the hospital.

Holy Communion and Visitation of the Sick – Holy Communion is brought to our parishioners who are ill at the hospital or at home by the deacon on Sundays and at other times by arrangement. Please contact the deacon or the rectory office by Friday prior to the Sunday communion visitation.

Funeral Services – The Office of Christian Burial is offered in ways to accommodate the needs of the family. The Epiphany Ladies Guild as part of their charity offers a Mercy Meal for families at the Parish Center following the interment. Epiphany of our Lord cemetery is a portion of Fairfax Memorial Park. Parishioners who are interested in purchasing cemetery plots should see the deacon.

Byzantine Catholic Mission of Montgomery County - Divine Liturgy: Sunday 10:00 AM; Religious Education & Social Hour 11:15-12:15: 20501 Goshen Road, Gaithersburg, MD; (301) 482-0282.

Meditation on Today's Readings

25th Sunday After Pentecost

*Thus will it be for the one who stores up treasure for himself but is not rich in what matters to God.
Luke 12:21*

As Jesus is traveling from Galilee to Jerusalem where He will be crucified, He is also teaching the Twelve and His disciples. At this point the evangelist Luke says that so many people had gathered around to hear Jesus they were trampling on one another. One man asks Jesus to settle a dispute about an inheritance between his brother and him. In reply Jesus tells the parable about the Rich Fool.

The Rich Man has a bumper crop and plans to expand his barns to contain them. For this prudent planning Jesus says that God calls the man a fool whose soul will be demanded that night. Why does Jesus say that God would call such a person a fool?

In Psalm 14 and Psalm 53 King David and the Holy Spirit wrote, "Fools say in their hearts, 'There is no God.'" This is the answer. The Rich Man is living without reference to God and he is planning for his life on earth and not planning for eternity.

It is God who gives the man life and his talents. It is God who has given the soil, the plants, and the rain. The character in the parable does not acknowledge this and thank God. He acts as if he created himself and the world.

In addition, there is a further point that Jesus makes that people should use the same talents and the applied efforts that people employ to provide for life on earth and apply them to provide for life after life. The Rich Man in the parable speaks to himself, and although our translation has him refer to himself with the pronoun you, in the original Greek he calls himself psyche, that is, soul. Here is where the character is overlooking something. Although he calls himself soul, he is not providing for his soul but only for his body. He has ignored his soul or otherwise he would have developed a relationship with God and provided for a place for his soul in heaven. Not only does the Rich Man not make friends with God he does not tithe his wealth to provide for the poor and hungry. He only has plans for the crops to be consumed by himself.

How foolish.

*There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call, one Lord, one faith one baptism, one God and Father of us all, who is above all and through all and in all.
Ephesians 4:1-6*

Saint Paul is writing a letter from prison. Twice in this letter, (3:1 and 4:1) he refers to being a prisoner for the Lord. His love of the Lord is strong enough that Saint Paul will not deny His Lord even if he is imprisoned for it. This suffering for Christ gives power to his words, for he is not just talk. His exhortation to the Ephesians, and now to us, is that there is only one Lord and therefore only one Church. To be in love with the one God means to truly know the one God as God is, not as we might conceive God. Our own conceptions of God have to be left behind. In addition, you or I are not an only child of God. All the baptized are one in Him and Saint Paul writes that a child of God has to be Godlike and live "a life worthy of the calling" with the virtues of humility, gentleness, and patience while bearing with one another with love. The list of seven unities—Church, Spirit, hope, Lord, faith in Christ, baptism and one God are the categories that became developed into the Creed we recite before God and each other at our baptism and at the Divine Liturgy.
