

all parishioners is "For the Intention of Parishioners." The faithful who attend the Divine Liturgy for the parishioners who participate, according to their state, in praying for that intention. We can continue this prayer for one another during the week by remembering several parishioners' families each week. Please pray for these parishioners, Carol Little, Kent and Michelle Logsdon & family, Patricia Loomis, Marilou and David MacDonnell, Mark and Christine Malm & family, Elizabeth Markovchick, and from the Mission, Jack and Lisabeth McLaurin.

Public Liturgies. The Governor of Virginia has issued the seventh revised Executive Order Seventy-two and Executive Order Seventy-Nine. In these orders the governor has lifted most restrictions according to recent guidelines issued by the Center for Disease Control. Bishop Kurt Burnette issued new directives May 26, 2021, effective May 28, 2021. The Bishop directs observing state laws. Bishop Kurt directs the following: Parishioners are not required to wear a mask as long as it is in compliance with state directives. People may continue to wear a mask for personal protection or as a courtesy to the vulnerable. No one should ask if someone has been vaccinated in order to be admitted. People are still encouraged to practice safe distancing in pews. Clergy and anyone assisting must wear a mask when distributing Holy Communion. Individual spoons must continue to be used when distributing Holy Communion. Priest and deacon must continue to receive from separate chalices from the one used to distribute Holy Communion to the Faithful. The priest, and deacon, must continue to exercise caution in handing the offered and prepared Gifts before they are consecrated and handling, speaking, or singing near the Gifts or the metal ware (chalice, discos, asterisk, zeon) and continue to sanitize hands. The Bishop has not changed the directive on distributing the bulletins or replacing the People's Molitvennik or Bibles in the pew racks yet. The Bishop will revoke the dispensation regarding the Sunday precept or obligation to assist at Divine Liturgy on June 6th. From that date, watching the live stream does not fulfill the obligation to assist at Divine Liturgy. However, the Bishop reminds everyone that "just as before the pandemic, anyone is relieved of the obligation for serious reason such as sickness, immobility, fear, caring for someone else, to protect your own health or the health of others."

Adjustments to Plan. As a response to the governor's amended executive order and Bishop Kurt Burnette's guidelines of May 26, 2021 Epiphany will have certain adjustments in public worship and assembly. Please continue to follow the directions of the ushers. The sanitizing stations will still be at the same places and all are asked to avail themselves of their use. The collection will continue to be taken by the basket in the narthex for the present. Please note that adjustments to pew seating are being made to accommodate the Faithful since the Bishop's dispensation will be revoked next Sunday. The Bishop has not made any changes to allow the distribution of bulletins or replacing the books in the pew racks. However, the ushers will have Divine Liturgy books available if you desire. If you ask for a book, please take it home with you and bring it back for use each time you come to church. The sacristans will continue to sanitize surfaces and doors in church after each Divine Liturgy. The chapel will remain closed at present. When the chapel will be opened the sacristans will have to sanitize it after each use and our sacristans have more work already without adding to their labors. Parishioners do not have to wear masks. Ushers are asked to continue to wear masks and gloves. Live stream Divine Liturgy will continue since some parishioners have medical issues that make them still unable to join us. Please observe the new marks on the carpet when in the Communion procession. Please maintain a sense of social distance.

Praying at Home Together. If you are remaining safe at home, you may consider praying the Divine Liturgy in your homes so that we can be united in praying the same prayers. These are available on the web site of the Metropolitan Cantor Institute of the Archeparchy of Pittsburgh, <https://mci.archpitt.org>. The entire People's Molitvennik is available under Publications tab to use when participating in the live streaming Liturgy.

Messages from the Pastor. Father John has been sending email messages to the parishioners whose email addresses we have on our roster. If you have not been receiving these email messages, it might be because we do not have your email address, or you have changed it and we do not have it. We would like to have your email address to keep contact with you during this time when some parishioners are remaining safe at home. Simply email the parish office.

Liturgy Intentions to be Rescheduled. If you have offered a Divine Liturgy for an intention to be celebrated during the suspension, you will be contacted to reschedule. Jamie has been rescheduling weekday liturgy requests according to the date of the request. If you have scheduled a weekday liturgy, that liturgy will remain on the date requested. However, if you scheduled a liturgy on a Sunday, the intention can be rescheduled on a weekday or Saturday or until Bishop Kurt is able to assign a second priest to be able to celebrate two Sunday liturgies. There is no pre-scheduled Divine Liturgy intention for Sunday of Pentecost, May 23rd.

All Saints. The Sunday after Pentecost Sunday is the commemoration of All Saints. Since Pentecost is the descent of the Holy Spirit, and the work of sanctification and making saints is the work of the Holy Spirit, we remember all the saints—those who have been declared saints by the Church as well as those known only to God. The Faithful on earth honors them on this special day, seeks their intercession with God, and holds them up as models to imitate in our effort to become a saint.

Apostles' Fast. The Apostles' Fast begins tomorrow and concludes June 28th, the eve of the feast of Ss. Peter and Paul. In the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church in the United States the aspects of the fast are left to the conscience of the individual. The traditional fast has a strict fast on Monday, Wednesday and Friday with abstinence on Tuesday and Thursday. In the United States, Fridays resume as a Day of Penance since the celebration of Pentecost is completed.

Prayers for Graduates. If you are a 2021 graduate of 8th grade, high school, college or graduate school, or the parent of a graduate, please submit the graduate's name and school from which he/she is graduating to the parish office by phone, 703-573-3986 or email epiphanyofourlord@verizon.net. Because of covid19 requirements, we did not remember the graduates of 2020. We would like to remember last year's graduates as well. Please submit their names and the year of graduation.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

On-line Giving. Bishop Kurt directed that all parishes have online giving service in place with www.tithe.ly.com by August 31, 2020. Both the parish and the mission have online accounts with tithe.ly and these can be accessed at the church or mission web sites. To make an online contribution, go to the church web site. On the home page is a link that says Epiphany of our Lord online donation. Click on that and you will be directed to Epiphany's tithe.ly account. Please note that where you see Offertory, that is a drop-down menu that allows the donor to specify what the donation is for: Sunday offertory, Building Fund, St. Nicholas Fund, or eparchial collections. Please show care in the category Recurring Giving. If it is not a donation to be given each week or month, please make that adjustment that this is a one-time donation.

Parish Financial Report. The financial reports for the year ended December 31, 2020 are available upon request in the church office. The events of 2020 had a significant effect on the church community and certainly our church finances. Even with the uncertainty, we were able to maintain a strong financial situation by being prudent with the expenses we needed to incur. We were able to eliminate some regular outdoor seasonal grounds upkeep expenses, and defer on some repairs to a future period, but we will be unable to continue this strategy going forward. If we do not resume some of our regular events such as bingo, the festival, Lenten dinners, we will need to look to other means to maintain our church campus. We thank you as we have seen an increase in online giving, however, we would like to suggest another option also. For those of you currently taking required minimum distributions from your IRA, consider making Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD) to Epiphany Church directly from your IRA. This will not only benefit our church, but it reduces your taxable income even if you do not itemize. Contact the parish office for more information.

EMC Bingo. We will continue to monitor and assess health and scientific information as it is released to guide the determination of opening safely for our parishioners and Bingo patrons.

Parish Bulletin. The parish bulletin will continue to be posted weekly on the Epiphany website: www.colbcc.org. It will also be posted on the bulletin board in the narthex and photograph of the bulletin can be taken.

Office Closed. The parish office is closed tomorrow, May 31st for the observance of Memorial Day.

Parish Office Schedule and Safety Protocols. Parish Office hours remain: Monday, Wednesday, Friday- 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM The hand sanitizer station remains for your use and safety. You may practice the courtesy of social distancing for safety. The office rest room is closed during renovation.

Epiphany Men's Club Meeting. EMC meeting by Zoom this Thursday, June 3rd, 7:30PM.

Mission Development. Christine Uvegyes Loya the principle of Eikona Studios plans to visit the Mission next month when she visits Epiphany church. The Mission is making progress with the engineering company, VIKA and the steady expert supervision as well as on-site labor of Jack McLaurin. The financial update is as follows: The Mission has paid VIKA $43,750.75 to date. The Mission has paid Montgomery County $6,832.88 in fees to date and $712.57 in property taxes (because we have not celebrated religious services there until we obtain a permit, we cannot apply for property tax relief for religious exemptions). The total for expenditures is $51,306.63. As a result of what Jack McLaurin has done the Mission has saved architect fees and hiring a project manager. The total monetary amount transferred from Epiphany Mission Savings to Epiphany Mission checking is $51,814.10. The balance remaining in savings is $294,345.

Book Store. The Bookstore is open Sunday by appointment. Please contact a Bookstore manager.

Restroom Availability FYI. Please note that the church restrooms are open for the use of our parishioners on Sundays and weekday Divine Liturgies. Rest rooms will continue to be sanitized.

EPARCHIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS & OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bishop's Appeal. The Bishop's Appeal 2020 began October 1st. Pledges and payments will be accepted through June 1, 2021. Any contributions received after December 31, 2020, must be attributed to the 2021 tax year. The goal for this year's campaign is the same as last year, $19,800 for the church and $6,000 for the mission. The parishioners at the church have pledged or given $20,635. The parishioners at the mission have pledged or given $4,225. This is an incredible response in this difficult time. May God bless you for your sacrificial offerings to our eparchy and for our eparchy's donations to European eparchies. If we reach our goal, we will receive a 40% refund of the total received.

Byzanteen News. With the blessing of Bishop Kurt, we are pleased to announce the following events for Byzanteens (ages 13-17):

An in-person watch party on Saturday July 3rd, and a Passaic Byzanteen in-person Rally at Carpathian Village-St. Nicholas Shrine in Cresco, PA July 30-August 2nd. Sunday, June 13 –

EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD Byzantine Catholic Church

The Sacraments – Our Life in Christ

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation - (Baptism, Chrismation, Holy Eucharist). We follow the command of the Lord to baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19). Chrismation (Confirmation) and Holy Eucharist (First Holy Communion) is imparted at the same time immediately following baptism.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Infants – is scheduled at the Divine Liturgy on Saturdays or Sundays during the year except certain fast periods. Sponsors must be Catholics in good standing and supply a sponsor card attesting to that from their parish. While two Catholics in good standing is usual, one baptized non-Catholic can function as a Christian Witness with the Catholic sponsor. Both must be at least sixteen years of age. Details are available at the parish office.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Adults – follows a period of catechumenate. This is a period of spiritual formation. Please see the priest or deacon.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Crowning in Marriage – According to the Pastoral Policy and Guidelines for Marriage Preparation for the Catholic Church in New Jersey, couples wishing to marry must inform the pastor one year before the date of the wedding and be free to marry in the Catholic Church. Couples will meet with the priest and deacon in four sessions – to begin the pre-nuptial investigation, to take FOCCUS, a communications, values and religious inventory approved for use in the Catholic dioceses/eparchies, to complete the pre-nuptial investigation and for a session on the theology of the mystery (sacrament). They are also required to attend Pre-Cana or Engaged Encounter.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance – The Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance is regularly available each Saturday 11:30 AM – 12:00 Noon. In addition, confessions are heard during the Christmas Fast (Advent) and the Great Fast (Lent) at other scheduled times. Visiting confessors are also scheduled at special times during the Great Fast. Confessions are also heard on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Great and Holy Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life endangering medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves Week to prepare for the observance of the Lord's Resurrection.

Anointing of the Sick – Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life-threatening medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves of the sacrament of penance and anointing of the sick. If surgery is scheduled, please consider confession and anointing at the church before entering the hospital since there is more privacy for confession and less chance of interruption for confession and anointing. If you are unable to come to church, please call the rectory. Families of parishioners who have a medical emergency should contact the rectory office so one of the priests can go the hospital.

Holy Communion and Visitation of the Sick – Holy Communion is brought to our parishioners who are ill at the hospital or at home by the deacon on Sundays and at other times by arrangement. Please contact the deacon or the rectory office by Friday prior to the Sunday communion visitation.

Funeral Services – The Office of Christian Burial is offered in ways to accommodate the needs of the family. The Epiphany Ladies Guild as part of their charity offers a Mercy Meal for families at the Parish Center following the interment. Epiphany of our Lord cemetery is a portion of Fairfax Memorial Park. Parishioners who are interested in purchasing cemetery plots should see the deacon.

Byzantine Catholic Mission of Montgomery County - Divine Liturgy: Sunday 10:00 AM; Religious Education & Social Hour 11:15-12:15: 20501 Goshen Road, Gaithersburg, MD; (301) 482-0282.

Meditation on Today's Readings

Sunday of All Saints

The Peter said to him in reply, "We have given up everything and followed you. What will there be for us?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you that you who have followed me in the new age, when the Son of Man is seated on his throne of glory, will yourselves judge the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has given up houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands for the sake of my name will receive a hundred times more, and will inherit eternal life."

Matthew 10:32-33, 37-38; 19:27-30

The gospel appointed for the Sunday of All Saints is a selection of verses: (1) the Lord Jesus inviting people to discipleship and the rigors of this "marriage" with God being the quality of exclusivity, that is, one must love the Lord God with one's whole heart, mind and soul, even more than one's self; (2) the question of Peter as to what the reward would be for this discipleship, taken from another context and chapter. The holy fathers did this to have the Word of God speak to us about the faith of the saints and about the reward that comes from faith.

Faith, as defined by Jesus, the Son of God, is not an emotion. It is a both a gift God gives to each human being since it is one of the three theological virtues with hope and love, and it is infused at conception. Every person has faith. The question is what or who is the object of each person's faith, is it someone as great as God, or something fragile, small and finite, one's own self, others, or society?

Faith in God requires the person who is in this "marriage" with God to be faithful, to acknowledge God, and to defend this bond of love before those who would question or deny it.

The saints we commemorate today are examples of heroic sanctity, faithful to death. The Son of God, who is the only one who can know about what happens in heaven and in eternity, says the saints enjoy indescribable happiness in heaven. Entering this union or "marriage" with God, even though it is exclusive does not provoke jealousy or exclusivity on the part of the saints. Saints enjoy union with God and communion with each other.

Yet all these [saints], though approved because of their faith, did not receive what had been promised. God had foreseen something better for us, so that without us they should not be made perfect. Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith.

Hebrews 11:32-12:2

Substantial parts of this chapter of the epistle to the Hebrews are read on other days: the Sunday before Christmas and the First Sunday of the Great Fast. Here it is appointed by the holy fathers to call forth another effect in us.

Like the gospel appointed for today, the epistle explains faith and encourages us to put faith not in ourselves or another person or group but in God. Only God is infinite and eternal, only God is enough to satisfy the reason we were created.

Since the Church is observing the memory of the saints, and the martyrs in the first place among them, this listing of the sufferings they endured shows, first, the great love they have for God because they perceived God's great love for them, second, that the sufferings and death testify that God's revelation is true, and finally, encourages us to enter the work to become saints, and especially, to testify, no matter the price, about God.

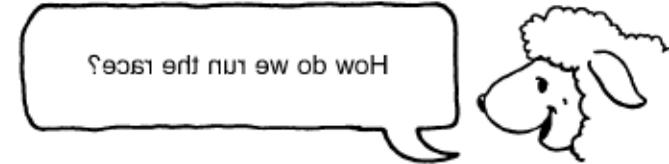

Notice that in this world oppressed by sin the saints do not get something out of faith in God such as being protected from suffering or persecution, or having great wealth and privilege. However, the reward in eternity is heaven. A life without God for eternity is frightening to contemplate.

The Holy Spirit, the Author of all Scripture, concludes that the saints encourage us to continue the race by first ridding ourselves of sin and by keeping our eyes on Jesus who perfects us and inspires, which literally means breathes in, us by the Holy Spirit to make us God's children worthy of spending eternity with Him.
