

to celebrate the Divine Liturgy for the people of the parish entrusted to him on Sunday and days of precept [holydays of obligation] (canon 294). This liturgy intention for parishioners is "For the intention of Parishioners." The faithful who attend the Divine Liturgy for the parishioners who participate, according to their state, in praying for that intention. We can continue this remembering several parishioners and families each week. Please remember this week; Dorothy Gaydos, Mary Gaydo, Aaron George, George Gerardi, Robert and Kyra Gerardi & family, Diana and Eugene Goldlust & family, and, from the Mission, Daniel and Barbara Spinder & family.

Episcopal Guidelines. Bishop Kurt issued directives for his parishes effective May 28, 2021. The Bishop directs that state and local health directives should be observed. Parishioners do not have to wear a mask except for personal choice. Clergy and those assisting with the distribution of Holy Communion should wear a mask. No one should be asked if they have received the covid vaccine in order to allow entrance to the church. People are encouraged to continue to practice safe distancing in the pews and Communion procession. The Bishop has not lifted the prohibition to have the prayer books or Bibles or bulletins in church.

Sunday Obligation. The Bishop has revoked the dispensation regarding the Sunday precept or obligation to assist at Divine Liturgy on June 6, 2021. Watching a live stream no longer fulfills the obligation to assist at Divine Liturgy. However, the Bishop reminds everyone that "just as before the pandemic, anyone is relieved of the obligation for serious reason such as sickness, immobility, fear, caring for someone else, to protect your own health or the health of others."

Parish Adjustments to Plan. As a response to Bishop Kurt Burnette's guidelines of May 28, 2021, Epiphany will have certain adjustments in public worship and assembly. At the present time, no executive orders have been issued. The Virginia Department of Health classifies gathering for public worship as a high-risk activity in the response to the covid variants, delta and omicron. VDH recommendations of October 14, 2021, for businesses and houses of worship are: physical distancing, promote frequent hand washing or sanitizing stations, regular sanitizing of doors and surfaces every day, incorporating ventilation as a mitigation strategy. Please continue to follow the directions of the ushers. The sanitizing stations will still be at the same places, and all are asked to avail themselves of their use. The collection will continue to be taken by the basket in the narthex for the present. Please note that adjustments to pew seating have been made to accommodate the Faithful since the Bishop's dispensation from the Sunday obligation has been revoked. The exhaust ventilating fans above the altar are on while people are in church. The Bishop has not made any changes to allow the distribution of bulletins or replacing the books in the pew racks. However, the ushers will have Divine Liturgy books available if you desire. If you ask for a book, please take it home with you and bring it back for use each time you come to church. The sacristans will continue to sanitize surfaces and doors after each service and Divine Liturgy. The chapel continues to remain closed at present.

Liturgy Prayer books. Theosis: The Divine Liturgy is a prayer book sized book with the text of the Divine Liturgy and the troparia, kontakia, prokeimena, alleluia psalm and communion psalm for Sunday and holydays. This edition was printed by our parishioner, Jack Figel, and his publishing company, Eastern Christian Publications. The books were donated by Dr. Tom Krisztinecz and also by Daria Parrell. We have a limited number at present. They will be distributed at church. The books will be very helpful to facilitate participation at the Divine Liturgy and are sized to fit in a pocket or purse. These donated books will be distributed at no cost. You can take the books home and bring them to church each time you attend the Divine Liturgy.

Praying at home together. If you are remaining safe at home, you may consider praying the Divine Liturgy in your homes so we can be united by the same prayer. Visit the <https://mci.archpitt.org> web site under Publications tab to use on your smart phone when participating in the Liturgy.

Messages from the Pastor. Father John has been sending email messages to the parishioners whose email addresses we have on our roster. If you have not been receiving these email messages, it might be because we do not have your email address, or you have changed it and we do not have it. We would like to have your email address to keep contact with you during this time when some parishioners are remaining safe at home. Simply email the parish office.

Condolences. We offer our condolences to Sally Gaydos and Kevin Gaydos upon the death of their mother, +Dorothy Gaydos who passed away January 22, 2022. Dorothy was the first president of Epiphany Ladies Guild. She initiated the hand-crafted chocolate project that was the first parish fund-raising project of Epiphany church and still successfully continues today. The funeral was Friday, January 28th at St. Mary Byzantine Catholic Church, Johnstown, PA. Interment at Grandview Cemetery. May God grant His departed servant, +Dorothy, peaceful repose. Please show care in the category Recurring Giving. If it is not a donation to be given each week or month, please make that adjustment that this is a one-time donation.

EMC Bingo. New legislation went into effect July 1, 2021, that changes aspects of Bingo in the Commonwealth of Virginia. This legislation allows only those organizations who have corporate offices in Virginia to hold Bingo. Epiphany Men's Club has retained

Meditation on Today's Readings

Sunday of Zacchaeus

“Jesus looked up and said to him, ‘Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house.’ And he came down quickly and received him with joy...Jesus said to him, ‘Today, salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost’”

Luke 19:1-10

Jesus is going to Jerusalem for His passion and crucifixion. He has just predicted the coming passion in detail to the Twelve and the disciples for the third time, but the gospel account states they did not understand. He has just healed the blind man who called out to Him and that gospel of the blind man was appointed for last Sunday. Now He enters Jericho, one of the oldest cities on earth, and begins the ascent to Jerusalem which is about a seventeen mile walk.

Zacchaeus, the chief of the tax collectors of Jericho, wants to see Jesus. Luke the evangelist explains that Zacchaeus was short of stature so he ran ahead of Jesus and climbed a sycamore tree. When Jesus sees Zacchaeus up in the tree, He calls Zacchaeus to come down, and Jesus invites Himself to his home.

God had foreknown that this encounter would take place by a tree on the way to the crucifixion on a tree. Adam and Eve ate from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil because they believed the temptation of the serpent that “you will be like god.” At Jericho Zacchaeus desires to see God and tries to see Jesus by his own effort of climbing a tree. However, Jesus calls Zacchaeus down from the tree. Using only human abilities it is impossible to see God or to become like God. We cannot ascend to heaven only by our own efforts. However, God comes to earth to find each one of us; God comes to climb the Tree of the Cross to suffer and die for our sins.

When we desire to see God and witness to God’s mighty works for us, we come to the sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist and to the Sacrament of Penance, because Jesus wants to invite Himself to our house every day and always. When we hear the words of forgiveness and accomplish our penance we hear the words of Jesus reconciling us to God and to His Body the Church just as truly as Zacchaeus heard when Jesus said that salvation had come to Zacchaeus and this salvation from God restored Zacchaeus to be a “son of Abraham” once again.

This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance. For this we toil and struggle, because we have set our hope on the living God who is the savior of all, especially of those who believe. Command and teach these things. Let no one have contempt for your youth, but set an example for those who believe, in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity...Attend to yourself and your teaching; persevere in both tasks, for by doing so you will save yourself and those who listen to you. 1 Timothy 4:9-16

Timothy was a fellow worker of the Gospel with Saint Paul, who now led the Church at Ephesus. Pagan environment, false teachers and easy-going moral standards of the time are threatening the stability of the young church led by its young bishop. Saint Paul gives an exhortation for Christian living. He had just written “Train yourself for devotion for while physical training is of limited value, devotion is valuable in every respect, since it holds a promise for life both for the present and the future.” Now he explains the victory to be won in spiritual athletics: it is to save our own self and those who listen to us by training in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity. Saint Paul explains to Timothy in verse 13 that this can be acquired by what happens at liturgical worship, that is, reading Sacred Scripture, by preaching and by teaching and that it is possible for him to do these drills because Timothy received the grace that was imparted in the sacrament of Holy

Priesthood. In today’s gospel passage Zacchaeus wants to see the Lord Jesus who is on his way to be crucified at Jerusalem. He is granted his wish but it changes him for the better. His change benefits those who he will give his charity. This happens to us: because like Zacchaeus we want to see God in heaven forever we have to meet Christ in the sacraments and in His Word now in church. Meeting Christ in church now changes us. The way we should live
